

Aging Quickly

My thoughts been shifting
I feel it drifting far away
I'm not here to satisfy

I've been isolating
I think that maybe I'll stay put
I'm still far from you but I'm leaning into the open

I was far from you when I started living for the first time
Aging quickly but only on the inside
It's something fake it seems like it kills it's curious like me
I'm still far from you but I'm leaning into the open

Thankful I'm still skating and complicating my life path
I could have stayed
Yeah this latest jump really woke me up I've been dreaming
I'm still far from you but I'm leaning into the open
