

Rebel Ways

The past has inspired
My thumb to stay up this whole time
Just lookin for a hand or a ride back home
Have I gone away or am I here just the same
I've put my faith in my faith alone

I can't see the water but I hear the waves
I can't see the bottom but the depth has changed
And I've found no payoff for my faith in faith
But I found a reason for my rebel ways

The pen was too fine
I couldn't see any of my lines
I drew them up as a sign to myself
That things went too far
Yeah just a little bit bazar
I need to reset my bar again

I can't see the water but I hear the waves
I can't see the bottom but the depth has changed
And I've found no payoff for my faith in faith
But I found a reason for my rebel ways

I can't see the water but I hear the waves
I can't see the bottom but the depth has changed
And I've found no payoff for my faith in faith
But I found a reason for my rebel ways

I'm at the end
I followed all of the trends
My time and money yeah I spent
And blew
I'm dressed in black
All my priorities are whack
Can I please come back to you
