

Sleeping

I've fallen asleep love turn to the deep of my slumbered heart
Occupy my open soul with your holy burning fire
I ran away when you called me by name
Still you call me
After every single hideous mistake
Still you call me

I'll follow your twists and your turns
But what of these scars and these burns
What of this broken heart oh love
I swear I never learn
Will you be with me in the fire
Will you be with me in the storm
Will you be with me when my heart breaks
Cause my heart breaks just like

I've fallen asleep love turn to the deep of my slumbered heart
Occupy my open soul with your holy burning fire
I made mistakes
Hideous mistakes
But still you call e
I ran away when you called me by name
But still you call me

I'll follow your twists and your turns
But what of these scars and these burns
What of this broken heart oh love
I swear I never learn
Will you be with me in the fire
Will you be with me in the storm
Will you be with me when my heart breaks
Cause my heart breaks just like

Oh love I don't know where I'm going
Call out and I'll run to your voice
Take this blindness make me see
Take my ignorance make me think

Oh love I don't know where I'm going
Call out and I'll run to your voice
Take this blindness make me see
Take my ignorance make me think

I'll follow your twists and your turns
See you through these scars and these burns
Life is deeper than this blood and skin
You make me feel again
You're here with me in the fire
You're here with me in the storm
You're here with me when my heart breaks
Cause my heart breaks just like
Yours
