

Gomer

Look at this life, look at love
It's so one sided, I can't keep up
I'll let you go, though it will hurt
I'll be right here, should you return

Every time you walk away
I feel a part of me break
Like the morning mist you never stay
The early due, you're here then gone away

I'll wait for you my dear
I'll wait for you my dear
Your coming home, and I'll be here
I'll wait for you my dear

She walks in darkness, she knows no names
Your lovely light, consumed by shame
I'll see her scars, I'll feel them to Goodbye my love, I'll see you soon

I'll wait for you my dear
I'll wait for you my dear
Your coming home, and I'll be here
I'll wait for you my dear

I've seen you stumble, I've seen you fall
And my angers gone love, forgiving all
Be like the lilies, take root in me
I'll smell your fragrance, know I am pleased

I'll wait for you my dear
I'll wait for you my dear
Your coming home, and I'll be here
I'll wait for you my dear

I'll wait for you my dear
I'll wait for you my dear
Your coming home, and I'll be here
I'll wait for you my dear
