

Expectations

God of the mountains, God of the seas
All I see is your glory
You are my refuge, your all I need
And I know you know me

You are all I expect
You are all I expect

God of the mountains, God of the sea
All I see is your glory
You are my refuge, your all I need
And I know you know me

You are all I expect
You are all I expect

Your all I want, your all I need
Your all I ever want to be
And I'll keep loving you forever (Repeat as you feel it)

You are all I expect
You are all I expect
You are all I expect
You are all I expect
