Call me out see if it rings
While I don't know what I believe
Do I get you
Like I used to

Do I still have to be
Hot like the rest of these
People I'm cold
I'm asking questions that I didn't
And I didn't think I would
Would you still hold me

Hear me out now I bleed
I lost my sense of urgency
Are you here
In ambiguity

If I pass you on the street
Would you still remember me
Or better yet talk
Cause I'm worried that my doubting
Means you're no longer surrounding please
Will you still hold me

Take my name and shout if
Will you still say it with pride
Am I losing my life
If I just can't find you
Will you still hold me

Do I still have to be
Hot like the rest of these
People I'm cold
I'm asking questions that I didn't
And I didn't think I would
Would you still hold me

Take my name and shout if
Will you still say it with pride
Am I losing my life
If I just can't find you
Will you still hold me
