

I Like Yellow Now

Sinking in my seat
Crying in the shower
Tired cause I need sleep
I like yellow now

Thinking about all my wants and needs
Thinking about too damn many things
Haven't been to therapy in weeks
But I like yellow now

I want brand new dreams
Wanna get rid of all my things
Change my scenery
But I like yellow now

I'm wandering around
Without grip I'm on the ground
Just keeping walking by I don't want to explain why
I like yellow now
