

Six Months

I'm Trying to go to school but I don't think that I can afford it anymore
My back packs on walking to the bus cus' I lost my car
I'm thinking about leaving Texas but I miss my corner store
Oh well guess I'll show up to work in my wrinkled uniform

My passport's expired yeah sure
I'm tired its been
Six months since I
Woke up on time For a job
But I showed up when we lost
Got back with the ones I love
I learned it's ok to change
I learned it's ok to change

Spent some time on the east side where you go to raise a family
I figure it's just a couple months before I leave for my home at sea
I told myself one of the days I'll be a captain
Maybe it'll happen maybe it won't but it's losing energy
It's losing energy
It's losing

My passport's expired yeah sure
I'm tired its been
Six months since I
Woke up on time for a job
But I showed up when we lost
Got back with the ones I love

My passport's expired yeah sure
I'm tired its been
Six months since I
Woke up on time

My passport's expired yeah sure
I'm tired its been
Six months since I
I Woke up on time for a job
But I showed up when we lost
Got back with the ones I love

My passport's expired yeah sure
I'm tired its been
Six months since I
Woke up on time For a job
then I showed up when we lost
Got back with the ones I love
I learned it's ok to change
