

Alone at Night

Haven't had my own room since high school so I got myself a friend Named after a cartoon he listens to me play I know the end
On repeat, till I believe, I can be as sick as phoebe Till it's easy, and then I'll write things, try to make them match how I'm feeling Then I'll get in my head and I'll take it too far Regret what I said man this is gettin' hard
This is gettin', man this is gettin' hard, this is gettin' hard

And the truth will collide
With the things that I hide
In my heart in my mind
I'll go for a drive

Diggin' through my journal for the perfect line
It's all too commercial maybe I'll resign
Buy myself a turtle relax and unwind
Check out my internal it's under redesign
I wanna be controversial but I'm too compliant
I wanna be like Idles but I'm not defiant

And the truth will collide
With the things that I hide
In my heart in my mind
I'll go for a drive

Till I loose my mind
Till I loose my mind
Till I loose my mind
Till I loose my mind

I should get some sleep I should get some sleep I should get some sleep I should get some sleep I should get some sleep I should get some sleep I should get some sleep I should get some sleep I should get some sleep I should get some sleep I should get some sleep I should get some sleep I should get some SLEEP

I should get some sleep I should get some sleep I should get some sleep I should get some sleep I should get some sleep I should get some sleep I should get some sleep I should get some sleep I should get some sleep I should get some sleep I should get some sleep I should get some sleep I should get some sleep
